

BROOKERS COPYRIGHT PRECEDENTS

FEATURES AND BENEFITS

Brookers Copyright Precedents will guide you through the actions and procedures necessary to assert, exercise and protect the rights conferred by the Copyright Act 1994.

While copyright is an automatic right, action is often needed to assert or protect that right. Brookers Copyright Precedents outlines the key elements of copyright in New Zealand and provides the documents and resources necessary to give expert advice and assistance to a client.

The precedents and documents in this service provide sample notifications of rights and requirements. Checklists show all the elements which must be fulfilled before a course of action can be taken, and sample letters allow quick initiation of action or a warning to anyone believed to be infringing copyright. All court forms and documents necessary for an action are also included.

Brookers Copyright Precedents also contains detailed information on international copyright, with guides to all relevant international conventions and border procedures.

EASILY CUSTOMISABLE

Each title in the Brookers Precedents series consists of a collection of documents which can be used with MS Word 97 or higher. The software enables you to insert commonly-used information only once (eg, names, dates and addresses) and each form will be automatically completed.

- Brookers software guides you through each section which needs to be completed.
- Use the software to reformat documents to meet your particular needs. Add your logo – and automatically renumber paragraphs if necessary.
