

EMPLOYMENT LAW ONLINE

FEATURES AND BENEFITS

Employment Law* is a comprehensive insight into New Zealand's current employment law system. First published in 1991, it has become a respected title among employment law practitioners and in employment courts.

The service is an annotated commentary designed to be a practical guide to the law. It is written and updated by five of New Zealand's leading employment law practitioners.

Including timely and practical analysis, as well as relevant case studies, Employment Law gives key insights into current employment issues such as holidays, parental leave, occupational health and safety, wages, human rights, privacy and the common law relating to employment. It provides in-depth coverage of the Employment Relations Act 2000 and associated regulations.

Analysis of legislation and case law is supplemented with procedural checklists, examples of employment agreements, and comparative tables to show the relationship between current law and previous legislation.

Employment Law is considered the foremost resource in its area and is a must-have for any lawyer or advocate specialising in employment law. An indispensable, practical guide for defence, prosecution, corporate lawyers, the judiciary, police, academics and students.

ACCURATE

All information, cases and legislation is rigorously checked by our team of legally-qualified editors and researchers.

DELIVERY ON BROOKERS ONLINE

Employment Law Online is available on the internet through Brookers Online. Brookers Online is New Zealand's most up-to-date legal online information service. Subscribers are able to view additions or amendments made by a Brookers editor to a piece of legislation or commentary the very next day. "What's New" keeps subscribers updated with all changes made to a database on a daily basis. Brookers Online includes the following easy-to-use features:

Searching

- Search across multiple Brookers Online databases simultaneously using the powerful MegaSearch feature;
- Search from any page. Use the "quick search" feature on any page to perform a simple free-text or document title search across a database;
- The intuitive Legislation Title Search Assistant makes it easy to find an Act or Regulation without knowing its exact title.

Navigation

- Research Trail feature allows you to back-track to a document accessed earlier in your session – so you never get lost;
- Related Content Menus. Brookers Online databases are fully integrated, meaning you will be able to link to any case law or precedents which relate to the legislation you have accessed, or vice versa;
- Preview Pane. Sometimes Related Content menus contain large numbers of links (such as case law related to frequently cited Acts). Here you can use the Preview Pane to "take a peek" at the linked documents without losing your place;
- Commentary Anywhere. Because Brookers Online is fully integrated, you can view legislative commentary from any product which contains the same legislation. For example, you can view commentary on the High Court Rules from McGechan on Procedure while you are using the Brookers Company Law database (subscription to both products required).

Printing

- "Print this Document" means you can print the page you're looking at easily and quickly;
- "My Selections" lets you select multiple documents to print as you go and compile them at the end of your session to a single print-out, or export them to PDF;
- "Export to PDF" is particularly useful for creating PDFs of whole Acts or Regulations.

Other Features

- Bookmarking. Add a document or frequently-used search to your "Favourites" menu and find things faster next time;
- Email. Use the Email Link features to send a link to a document to a colleague;
- Hide/Show. Brookers Online displays commentary and annotations section-by-section by default. You can hide this to read legislation on your screen faster, or to exclude the commentary and annotations from your print version.
