

SALE OF LIQUOR ONLINE

FEATURES AND BENEFITS

Sale of Liquor* is a self-contained reference to New Zealand law on the sale of liquor.

The product combines all relevant legislation with case law developments and commentary and analysis. The team of authors has updated and maintained Sale of Liquor since it was first published in 1989, and brings a real depth of experience to the work - which is the only specialist examination of New Zealand sale of liquor law.

Sale of Liquor contains an introduction which outlines the history of the 1989 legislation, with a critical analysis. Each section of the Act has full commentary, a plain English synopsis, and cross references which highlight other related sections of the legislation.

The service is an important resource for anyone who is required to deliver professional advice or to research New Zealand's liquor laws. A set of 20 Checklists guides users through important procedures and actions, with full explanatory notes and links to the appropriate legislative provisions.

Much of the practical application of New Zealand's liquor law comes from Liquor Licensing Authority decisions. Sale of Liquor contains detailed references to appropriate decisions, eliminating time-consuming searches through the many hundreds of LLA decisions made since 1992. The full text of the Authority's annual reports to Parliament from 1991 onwards is also included.

For example, you can view commentary on the High Court Rules from McGechan on Procedure while you are using the Brookers Company Law database (subscription to both products required).

Printing

- "My Selections" lets you select multiple documents to print as you go and compile them at the end of your session to a single print-out, or export them to PDF;
- "Export to PDF" is particularly useful for creating PDFs of whole Acts or Regulations.
